20 Under the scheme for affording relief to the encumbered Jaghirdars, Government, in their order No.340-42 dated 14th July 1899, sanctioned in favour of the said Jaghirdar a loan of Rs.45,000 on the security of the marginally noted Inam villages belonging him. The whole amount including interest at 5% per annum was made repayable in annual instalments of not less than Rs.3,750. The villages freed from all previous encumbrances were ordered to be taken over under Government management. It is now reported that the annual instalments have been regularly adjusted and that the balance of the loan outstanding on the 30th June 1912 was Rs.13,950-12-8.

3. The Inamdar Mr.Venkata Rao now represents that he owns no house, that the insanitary locality in which he is compelled to live has affected the health of the several members of his family and that consequently he is obliged to purchase a more comfortable and sanitary building in a healthy locality in Mysore City. As he has no other source of income wherefrom to meet this expenditure, he prays that the Government may either grant him a fresh loan of Rs.10,000/- on the same conditions as the original loan, or that the

this is not possible, he may be permitted to postpone the payment of the remaining instalments of the original loan for a period of at least three years.

Page 4 of notes - 12 4. The Financial Secretary notes that this is one of the few cases of loans to encumbered Jaghirdars in which instalments in repayment have come fairly regularly and recommends the grant of the loa asked for on the same condition as the original loan provided the house to be purchased is also mortgaged to Government, and the additional interest and - - pro rata principal are paid so that the whole of the balance including the further loan is discharged within the next six years. He adds that "the money will be safe and earning fair interest (5%) and the representative of a loyal and distinguished family will have comfort and satisfaction in his old age".

Page 4 of notes - 5. The Councillors are unanimously of opinion that the loan may be given, the interest to be - - charged being the same as in the previous transactio I agree with them that the loan asked for by the Ina -dar may be sanctioned on the conditions stated by - the Financial Secretary.

SECTION S.R.
FILE NO. 80-1/12
SERIAL No. 1.

J. S. Chakravarti Esquire M.A.
Secretary to the Government of Mysore
Financial Department
Bangalore

Most Respected Sir,

I most respectfully beg to submit this application praying for the grant of a loan of Rs. 10,000/- from Government for the purpose of purchasing a decent house, for me to live in, in the Mysore City.

In consideration of long connection of the members of my family for the last 4 generations with the Government and the Royal house, the reponsible posts they held in the service of the state and the important military services rendered by my forefathers successively at the risk of their lives, and with a view to save the Jahagir, which was graciously conferred on the family by His Highness the late Krishnaraja Wodiyar Bahadur, for the meritorious services rendered by them, from passing into the hands of creditors and to continue it in the family itself, the Government were in 1900, pleased to grant me a loan of Rs.45000/- on the security of my Jahagir villages, under the rules for the grant of loans to encumbered Jahagirdars.

Gandhanahalli
Changa
Beeranhalli
Degganahalli
(in Yedatore Taluk)

Since then the Jahagir is under the management of Government for the liquidation of the loan, and a small portion portion of the income ranging between Rs. 1500/- and Rs. 2000/- per annum, that remains after paying off all Government dues, is being given to me for the maintenance of myself and family.

The fixed annual instalment of Rs.3750/- out of the income of the Jahagir, is being regularly adjusted towards the loan. The Comptroller's intimation shows that the balance of the loan at the end of 1910-11 was about Rs. 16000/- and odd, and by the close of 1911-12 this balance must have been reduced by another Rs.3000/- or so. It will thus be seen, that within 3 years more, the Jahagir will be completely free from encumbrances, and will, in the ordinary course, have to be restored to me.

While being sufficiently grateful for all that Government have already done for me, I beg to state that I own no house in Mysore to live in, and that I am put to great inconvenience for want of one. The honorable position which my forefathers held in Mysore, makes me loathe to live in an insanitary house in the old City. Moreover my advancing age,-I am 70 years now,-and the indifferent health I am keeping latterly, not to speak of the frequent illness of the several members of my family, have compelled me to think of buying a house at once in a healthy locality, to suit my convenience and live compfortably. In these days days a comfortable and sanitary house, cannot be had for any thing less than Rs. 10000/-, and with the wholesale demolition of houses in Mysore, it has become impossible to buy or build a decent one for anything less than that sum. Beyond the money I get from the Jahagir, I have no source of income and I am unwilling to borrow money from private parties and thereby encumber my Janagir again. I am therefore compelled to seek the aid of Government for a further loan on the same conditions as heretofore.

I therefore beg that you will be pleased to recommend to Government for the grant of a fresh loan of Rs. 10000/- on the security of my Jahagir villages, under the same conditions on which the present loan has been given.

The fresh loan now asked for, together with the balance now outstanding will in that case be fully paid back to Government in 6 years.

It will not be out of place here to mention the generosity of Government in granting House Building advances to Government servants to build houses in the extensions of Mysore and other Cities. In such cases advances equal to one years pay of the Officers who ask for loan, are granted and these are recovered without interest from their pay in 4 years.

live in peace and comfort and in a house, which I can call my own.

For this act of kindness I shall ever be grate-

I beg to remain,

Most respected Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

Mysore.
